

Sampson Arts Council's
Youth Pottery Camp – Instructed by Beth Aspray
July 22 - 26, 2019
Grades 1 - 12

About our instructor: Beth Kilpatrick Aspray is a native North Carolinian who spent most of her life in the southern Appalachian mountains in Brevard. Her first memories were made in her sandbox and playing in the clay in a small creek where she formed plates and cups to dry in the sun. It is no wonder she was drawn to pottery as an adult.

Her first lessons were taught by David Wray at Carlwile-Dodson Studio, part of Mud Dabbers Pottery in Brevard. Other instructors were Wendy Elwell of Burnwell Pottery and John Dodson of Mud Dabbers. Beth became an apprentice at Mud Dabbers and worked there learning the workings of production pottery and eventually teaching children and adults at Carwile-Dodson Studio. During this time, she was a full time 4th grade teacher at Brevard Elementary. In 2016 she opened Red Waters Studio in Autryville, NC, and began making pots full time. Beth's work can be found at Mud Dabbers Pottery in Brevard, NC, Gallery of the Mountains in Asheville, NC and The Melon Patch in Godwin, NC. You can also view her work on Facebook and Instagram by searching Red Waters Studio

The Sampson Arts Council invites students entering grades 1-12 to join us for Youth Pottery Camp! All students will explore clay with hand building techniques and the older students will have a chance to try wheel-throwing. These classes will focus on creativity and the endless possibilities of working with clay. Each day will feature a different project based on a pottery technique and students will create unique, functional and decorative pieces of pottery. Bring your imagination and wear your art clothes because we are going to get dirty!
